

This Green Story API License and Terms of Use (“API Terms”) amends the Green Story Terms of Service (the “Agreement”) by and between you and Green Story Inc., a Canadian corporation with offices located at 130 King Street W, Suite 1885, Toronto, Ontario, M5X 1A9. By accessing or using the Green Story API, you agree to API Terms.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Application” or “App” means the software application, website, interface or any other means you use to access the Green Story API using the API Credential
2. “API Credentials” means the credentials that allow you to make authenticated requests to the Green Story API.
3. “Custom Application” means a non-Green-Story Application that accesses the Green Story API
4. “Service” means the Green Story hosted platform available via <https://greenstory.io> and any associated websites, products or services offered by Green Story.
5. “Green Story API(s)” means all software, including routines, data structures, object classes, protocols, programs, templates, libraries and interfaces, application programming interfaces (APIs), software development kits (SDKs), developer tools, technical documentation, Updates and other related materials, whether tangible or intangible, in whatever form or medium that are made available by Green Story at <https://developers.greenstory.io> or as otherwise provided to you.
6. “Updates” means bug fixes, updates, upgrades, enhancements, modifications and new releases or versions of the Green Story API.

USING THE GREEN STORY API

Access to the Green Story API

Except as permitted herein, (A) you must keep the API Credentials and all login information for your Green Story Account secure, (B) you must not share the API Credentials with any third party, and (C) you will not access the Green Story API by any means other than the API Credentials you receive. API Credentials are the exclusive property of Green Story, and your access to and use of API Credentials is in Green Story’s sole discretion.

API License

Subject to the Terms, Green Story grants you a worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, revocable and limited license to use and make calls to the Green Story API solely in connection with your Application that interoperates or integrates with the Service, and solely in the manner described in the API Terms and in the technical documentation contained in the Green Story API

API Restrictions

When using the Green Story API, you will (and will ensure that your employees, agents, and service providers) will:

1. Only use the Green Story API to develop Applications or content for your use;
2. Restrict the disclosure of the API Credentials, or any part thereof, to your agents, employees, or services providers, who must require access to use, maintain, implement, correct or update your Application in accordance with the API Terms, and who are subject to confidentiality obligations the same as or greater than those between you and Green Story API.
3. Not distribute, sell, lease, rent, lend, transfer, assign or sublicense any rights granted by the API Terms to any third party.
4. Not use or access the Green Story API or the Service in order to monitor the availability, performance, or functionality of the Green Story API, the Service or any portion thereof or for any similar benchmarking purposes.
5. Not remove or destroy any copyright notices, proprietary markings or confidentiality notices placed upon, contained within or associated with the Green Story API.
6. Not engage in any activity that interferes with, disrupts, harms, damages, or accesses in an unauthorized manner the servers, security, networks, data, applications or other properties or services of Green Story or any third party.
7. Not circumvent technological measures intended to prevent direct database access, or manufacture tools or products to that effect.

8. Not modify, translate, reverse engineer, disassemble, reconstruct, decompile, copy, or create derivative works of the Green Story API, the Services, or any aspect or portion thereof, except to the extent that this restriction is expressly prohibited by applicable law.
9. Not bypass Green Story API restrictions for any reason.
10. Not substantially replicate products or services offered by Green Story or any Green Story Related Entity, including the Green Story API, unless authorized by Green Story in writing.
11. Not integrate with Applications that excessively burden the Green Story system, distribute spyware, adware or other commonly objectionable programs

API Limits

Green Story may set and enforce limits on your use of the Green Story API (limiting the number of requests that you may make), in our sole discretion. You agree to, and will not attempt to circumvent such limitations. If you would like to use any Green Story API beyond these limits, you must obtain Green Story's express written consent. Green Story has the right to decline such request or condition or accept such request on such additional terms as Green Story may deem fit.

Updates

You acknowledge that Green Story may make Updates to the Green Story API from time to time, and at its sole discretion. You must implement and use the most current version of the Green Story API and to make any changes to your application that are required as a result of such Update, at your sole cost and expense. Updates may adversely affect the manner in which your Application accesses or communicates with the Green Story API. Your continued access or use of the Green Story API following an update or modification will constitute binding acceptance of the Update.

Access and Use

We may change or discontinue the availability of some or all of the Green Story API at any time for any reason with or without notice. Such changes may include removal of features, or the requirements of fees for previously free features. We may also impose limits on certain features and services or restrict your access to some or all of the Green Story API. Your continued use of the Green Story API following a subsequent release will be deemed as your acceptance of such modifications.

TERMINATION

Termination

Access to the Green Story API may be terminated or suspended by Green Story at any time at Green Story's sole discretion. Without limiting the foregoing, Green Story may terminate your right to use the Green Story API if you breach the API Terms or any documents incorporated by reference in the API Terms (including the Acceptable Use Policy).

Upon termination of the Terms: (a) each party shall return to the other party, or destroy (and provide certification of such destruction), all property of the other party in its possession or control (including all Confidential Information); (b) You shall immediately cease displaying any Green Story Trademarks on any website or otherwise; and (c) all rights granted to you hereunder will immediately cease, including the right to access and use the Green Story API.

Miscellaneous

1. You agree that Green Story may monitor your use of the Green Story API to ensure quality, improve Green Story products and services, and verify your compliance with the API Terms. Green Story may suspend access to the Green Story API by you or your application without notice if we reasonably believe that you are in violation of the Terms.
2. The Service and the Green Story API are provided on "as-is" basis. Green Story makes no warranties hereunder, and Green Story expressly disclaims all warranties, express or implied, including warranties of non-infringement and fitness for a particular purpose. Without limiting the foregoing, Green Story further disclaims all representations and warranties, express or implied, that the Service or the Green Story API satisfies all of your requirements or will be uninterrupted, error-free or free from harmful components.
3. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of the Agreement and this API Terms, the provisions of this API Terms shall prevail. For avoidance of doubt and to the extent allowed by applicable law, any and all liability under this API Terms, including limitations thereof, will be governed by the relevant provisions of the Agreement. You acknowledge and agree that Green Story may amend this API Terms from time to time by posting the relevant amended and restated API Terms on Green Story's website. API Terms and such amendments to the API Terms are effective as of the date of posting. Your continued use of the Services after the amended API Terms is posted to Green Story's website constitutes your agreement to, and acceptance of, the amended API Terms. If you do not agree to any changes to the API Terms, do not continue to use the Service.
4. Save as specifically modified and amended in this API Terms, all of the terms, provisions and requirements contained in the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and govern this API Terms. If any provision of the API Terms is held illegal or unenforceable in a judicial proceeding, such provision shall be severed and shall be inoperative, and the remainder of this API Terms shall remain operative and binding on the parties.

5. The terms of this API Terms shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws. The parties irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario with respect to any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this API Terms.
